

AESBL CEU Credits

What is Accepted-

- Training Sessions, Educational Workshops, or Seminars: credit will be given for documented attendance at approved educational sessions for security, life safety, or locksmith industry related activities. These sessions include educational seminars and sessions attended at State and National conferences, as well as code and industry update workshops.
- Industry Related Expos: A maximum of 4 CEU credits will be granted for attendance at security, life safety or locksmith industry related expo per renewal cycle. Proof of attendance is required for any CEU credits to be granted.
- College/University/Trade School courses: credit will be granted for successful completion of a college/university course in an industry topic related to licensing categories of the board. A three or four credit course is equivalent to 12 CEU credits. A maximum of 12 CEU credits per renewal cycle will be granted for these courses.
- Teaching: Credit will be granted for teaching industry related courses related to licensing categories of the board at a rate of .5 CEU credits per course with a maximum of 12 CEU credits per renewal cycle.

What is required for submission-

- Attendees should ask before taking any courses if it has been approved by Alabama and has an approval number. A list of approved CEU courses is available on the AESBL website.
- All CEU certificates submitted to the AESBL must have the following:
 - Sponsoring entity that has been approved for instructing
 - Title of Course or Event
 - Name of Individual that attending
 - Number of CEU Credits
 - Approval number given to the sponsoring entity, i.e. 19-XXXX
 - Date of Course or Event
 - Location of Course or Event
- Sponsoring entities of courses are required to keep records of attendees for random verification of CEU credits that have been submitted to the AESBL.